

Post : Assistant Professors

SASMIRA- The Synthetic and Art Silk Mills Research Association (Linked to the Ministry of Textiles, Govt. of India) has set up the Sasmira's Business School (SBS) to offer an ambitious, high quality Post Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM) program with dual specialization. The two year, full time, PGDM program is approved by the AICTE and delivers high quality business education.

The Sasmira's Business School (SBS) invites applications from experienced persons to work as Core Faculty. The job offers exciting opportunities and challenges for providing high quality business education. The candidate's requirements are as below:

A dedicated professional to provide high quality higher education in Business Management with a passion for teaching , training and nurturing young minds for leadership careers in business and industry.

Educational qualifications : Should possess a good academic record, post graduate MBA or equivalent degree/ diploma with specialization in Marketing, Finance and HR is essential . A PhD or registered for PhD would be desirable.

Experience: At least eight to ten years corporate experience with five to six years academic/teaching experience in a good B-school is essential. The experience calls for good communication ,coordination and managing people in diverse age groups.

Aspiring candidates may apply by emailing their latest CV to:

The Executive Director,
The Synthetic and Art Silk Mills Research Association (SASMIRA)
SASMIRA Road, Worli , MUMBAI
PIN- 400030.
Email: ed@sasmira.org